

Recruitment fee

The recruitment fee is PLN 300 or the equivalent of EUR.

The fee should be paid during the registration at the website of the Online Candidate Registration (IRK)

<https://usosirk.amu.edu.pl/en-gb/offer/SD-2021/programme/SD-NFiz-G5/>

Form of the selection procedure

One-stage procedure.

Language of the selection procedure, including interviews:

Polish or English language

Required documents

The candidate applying for admission to a doctoral school shall submit the following documents:

- 1) a printed registration form downloaded from the website of the Online Candidate Registration (IRK);
- 2) a statement confirming that he/she is not commencing education in another doctoral school and does not have a doctoral degree;
- 3) a cover letter along with an indication of the scientific discipline in which he/she would like to obtain a doctoral degree; in the cover letter; the candidate should describe his qualifications in terms of the implementation of the project's tasks
- 4) a request for an interview using distance communication with justification (if applicable);
- 5) CV with documented:
 - a) academic achievements,
 - b) other achievements;
- 6) a proposal of a unique research project prepared for the admission (up to 8 pages of standard typescript); the project may be accompanied by an opinion of an academic teacher; In the project, the candidate should include the subject of the project and the planned scope of the doctoral student's work;
- 7) a copy of the university diploma, confirming the attainment of second-cycle qualifications, and in case of graduates from the academic year 2020/2021 - a certificate confirming the attainment of second-cycle qualifications. In the case of "Diamond Grant" program beneficiaries, a decision of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education on awarding funds for carrying out a research project;
- 8) a diploma supplement (in the case of two-cycle studies - a supplement attached to the diploma of first cycle studies and a supplement attached to the diploma of second-cycle studies);
- 9) one color photograph, 35 mm x 45 mm;
- 10) confirmation of payment of the admission fee.

Candidates shall submit documents prepared in the language in which the interview will be conducted. In the case of foreign candidates, it is required to attach an English translation of documents certifying the academic and other achievements of the candidate.

Persons who have obtained the necessary education outside the territory of the Republic of Poland, shall additionally submit:

- a scan of a document certifying their education
- a diploma with a supplement confirming completion of first cycle studies (Bachelor degree) and a diploma with a supplement confirming completion of second-cycle studies (Master degree, MSc, MA) in the original language and a certified translation into English or Polish,
- a scan/ photocopy of passport.

The documents should be sent to:

Anna Kolańczyk-Marszałek
Wydział Fizyki UAM
ul. Uniwersytetu Poznańskiego 2
61-614 Poznań, Poland